Hymn 650 – I Will Sing of My Redeemer

Responsive Reading

Leader: Which is the fifth commandment?

People: The fifth commandment is, Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Leader: What is required in the fifth commandment?

People: The fifth commandment requires the preserving the honor, and performing the duties, belonging to everyone in their several places and relations, as superiors, inferiors, or equals.

Leader: What is forbidden in the fifth commandment?

People: The fifth commandment forbids the neglecting of, or doing anything against, the honor and duty which belongs to everyone in their several places and relations. (Shorter Catechism 63-65)

Corporate Confession of Sin

Leader: Lord God and gracious Father, we confess that we have not given proper honor to those around us.

People: We confess we have been disobedient to our parents and those others you have put in authority over us.

All: We earnestly beg your forgiveness, Father, and that you would forgive these and all our sins.

Personal Confession of Sin (silent)

Assurance of Pardon

Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for “The righteous shall live by faith.”...Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us – for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree.” (Galatians 3:11, 13)
