Prayer Requests for the week:

- for our church: strength and endurance in our work, wisdom for our Elders, spiritual growth of our families, blessings from our times of family worship, for our foster care families, for our seminary students (Chris, Rom, and Tom)
- for those who are sick: Judy Austin, James Owens (Silva), Daniel Whittaker (Smuts)
- for our sister churches: the RPCNA and the Midwest Presbytery, for the persecuted church overseas.
- for the Dallas/Fort Worth area: that the gospel would be proclaimed, that the church would worship as God has commanded, that Christ's Kingship would be recognized, that God's law would be respected, that the Sabbath would be kept

Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)
2250 Morriss Road, Suite 214 Flower Mound, TX 75028

So it shall be in that day:
The great trumpet will be blown;
They will come, who are about to perish in the land of Assyria,
And they who are outcasts in the land of Egypt,
And shall worship the Lord in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

WLC Q. 43. How doth Christ execute the office of a prophet? A. Christ executeth the office of a prophet, in his revealing to the Church in all ages, by his Spirit and Word, in divers ways of administration, the whole will of God, in all things concerning their edification and salvation. WLC Q. 44. How doth Christ execute the office of a priest? A. Christ executeth the office of a priest, in his once offering himself a sacrifice without spot to God, to be a reconciliation for the sins of his people; and in making continual intercession for them. WLC Q. 45. How doth Christ execute the office of a king? A. Christ executeth the office of a king, in calling out of the world a people to himself, and giving them officers, laws, and censures, by which he visibly governs them; in bestowing saving grace upon his elect, rewarding their obedience, and correcting them for their sins, preserving and supporting them under all their temptations and sufferings, restraining and overcoming all their enemies, and powerfully ordering all things for his own glory and their good; and also in taking vengeance on the rest, who know not God, and obey not the gospel.

I. Christ the Prophet (v 2).

II. Christ the Priest (v 3).

III. Christ the King (vs 4-6).

WLC Q. 34. How was the covenant of grace administered under the Old Testament? A. The covenant of grace was administered under the Old Testament, by promises, prophecies, sacrifices, circumcision, the passover, and other types and ordinances, which did all fore-signify Christ then to come, and were for that time sufficient to build up the elect in faith in the promised Messiah, by whom they then had full remission of sin, and eternal salvation. WLC Q. 35. How is the covenant of grace administered under the New Testament? A. Under the New Testament, when Christ the substance was exhibited, the same covenant of grace was and still is to be administered in the preaching of the Word, and the administration of the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper; in which grace and salvation are held forth in more fullness, evidence, and efficacy, to all nations. WLC Q. 36. Who is the Mediator of the covenant of grace? A. The only Mediator of the covenant of grace is the Lord Jesus Christ, who, being the eternal Son of God, of one substance and equal with the Father, in the fullness of time became man, and so was and continues to be God and man, in two entire distinct natures, and one person, forever.
