- C. The Finish: Satan is released after 1000 years to lead one last rebellion (7-10).
  - 1. He will be released (7).
  - 2. He will make one final attempt at a coup (8-9).

	<ul> <li>a. He will go out and the nations.</li> <li>1) all the nations of the world</li> <li>2) a great multitude of people</li> <li>3) in similar fashion to the battle of Gog and Magog</li> <li>4) his deception aligns the nations together for battle</li> <li>b. They will go up to the beloved city and surround the saints.</li> <li>c. Fire will come done from God and devour them.</li> <li>3. He will face his final and eternal judgment (10).</li> <li>a. He will be cast into the lake of fire.</li> <li>b. He will be tormented forever.</li> </ul>
	* What's the point?
II. The	e Final Judgment (20:11-15)
A.	John saw a great white throne and Him sitting on it (11).
	<ol> <li>From whose face the earth and heaven fled.</li> <li>There was found no place for them (earth and heaven).</li> </ol>
	* Who is "Him"?
B.	John saw the unsaved dead standing before Him and the throne (12-13).
	<ol> <li>There were books opened.</li> <li>There was another book called the Book of Life.</li> <li>The dead were judged according to the things written in the books.         <ul> <li>The sea, Death, and Hades delivered up the dead for this judgment.</li> <li>Their judgment was according to their works.</li> </ul> </li> </ol>
	* God is keeping books!
	* What are the works that they are judged by?
C.	The dead were cast into the lake of fire (14).  * What do we not see?
D.	The reason one is cast into the lake of fire is that their name is not written in the Book of Life (15).  * How can you have your name written in the Lamb's Book of Life?
