

1 PETER
Alert Christianity
1 Peter 4:7-9

Mac Williams, Pastor
September 29, 2019

1. Believers are called to live in an awareness that the end of all things is _____.

- a. Believers are to keep in mind that they live in the _____ stage of human history that was ushered in by the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

- b. The _____ event of these last times is the 2nd coming of Christ, which also brings final judgment. But it “should be noted that Christ can come at any time in providential judgment upon a nation, church, or individual.” - John Jefferson Davis

- c. In light of these last times, believers are to live with a _____ that embraces a clear minded alertness regarding every aspect of life.

2. An awareness that the end of all things is near is a strong encouragement to believers to be careful about how they walk out the _____ of the Christian life.

- a. Believers are to pursue a _____ life in which they regularly fellowship with the Lord, watch over their own hearts, and have a clear minded intercession for others.

- b. Believers are to give high priority to pursuing a love for fellow believers that is _____ and earnest.

- c. The pursuit of genuine Christian love between believers recognizes the reality of sin but _____ over those sins in forgiveness.

- d. Believers are called to love one another by hospitably meeting one another's _____ physical needs as they have opportunity.