

God's House and the Court House

1 Corinthians 6:1-11

Seven reasons why Christians should not drag their petty disputes into secular courts.

1 – We are destined to judge the world with Christ; surely we can judge ourselves right now. (v.2)

2 – We are destined to judge the angels with Christ; surely we can judge ourselves right now. (v.3)

God's House and the Court House

1 Corinthians 6:1-11

3 – The Christian faith is surely capable of arbitrating petty disputes. (v.4)

4 – It only requires one mature believer to settle a petty dispute. (v.5)

5 – The testimony of the church is damaged when believers cannot privately settle their petty disputes. (v.6)

God's House and the Court House

1 Corinthians 6:1-11

6 – It is better to be wronged than to commit a wrong. (v.7&8)

7 – We are new creations in Christ, and we should act like it. (v.9-11)
