DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

How does this passage help you understand conditions in our world today?

Give some examples of recent events in our world that illustrate what is described in verses 28-31. Think about these specifically: “full of envy,” “haters of God,” “violent,” “inventors of evil things,” “disobedient to parents,” “undiscerning,” “untrustworthy.”

Give some examples of “approving those who practice them.” What are some situations where people affirm and show favor to people who are disobeying God?

Are people in this condition too far gone to be saved? What are some truths from God’s Word that answer this?

What are some ideas for how to engage someone in this condition in a gospel conversation? Where do you start? What biblical truths would you share? How would you treat him or her?

Verse 32 refers to God’s judgment. Is this a popularly accepted topic in our world today? What is the world’s attitude toward it? How does this affect you? How should the truth of God’s judgment of people who reject Him affect you?
