1. The gospel begins with an accurate knowledge of _____.

- a. The chief concern we have must always be the _____ of God.

"At the outset of the discussion He wished to honor God and stir a _____ for His holy character. So He seized upon the seeker's salutation as an occasion for instruction." - Walter Chantry

- b. People will never comprehend the depth their _____ apart from a right understanding of God's character.

2. The gospel makes it clear that _____ have fallen short of God's standard revealed in His Law.

- a. God's Law shows us that we not only have a bad record, but we also have a bad _____.

"The law does not make us conscious of our sins if we fail to discern its real meaning, its _____, as set forth by Jesus in Matthew 5:21-48."
- William Hendriksen

- b. It is actually a blessing when God's Law pierces the heart with a _____ application.

3. The gospel requires repentance from sin and _____ in Jesus Christ.

- a. Repentance is a change of _____ about sin that results in a change of direction.

"In commanding repentance, our Lord was urging the rich man to _____ his philosophy of life. He must rip his intelligence, emotions and will away from earthly riches or he would possess no 'treasures in Heaven.'" - Walter Chantry

- b. The repentant person must believe in and follow Jesus Christ as the _____ of their life.

4. The gospel reminds us that salvation is impossible for man to _____--it requires a life changing work from God.

- a. It is only when God gives a new _____ that a person is enabled to repent and believe.

- b. This reality should cause the unconverted person and those concerned for them to _____ God's grace and power on their behalf.
