THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

Scripture Reading

Hebrews 13:1–6

THE MAIN POINT OF HEBREWS 13:1–6

Suffering Christians must continue to live with unselfish love for each other.

What's the connection between endurance and love?

Prolonged suffering often leads us to become self-focused—unloving.

THREE AREAS OF LIFE IN WHICH TO SHOW UNSELFISH LOVE

1. Weary Christian, in ministry, be active (verses 2–3).

THREE AREAS OF LIFE IN WHICH TO SHOW UNSELFISH LOVE

1. Weary Christian, in ministry, be active (verses 2–3).
2. Weary Christian, in marriage, be pure (verses 4).

“Marriage is covenant relationship in which one man and one woman publicly promise to each other their exclusive, lifelong, entire-person love and thereby begin a new family entity”

— definition of marriage, rooted in the teaching of numerous Bible texts such as Genesis 2:24; 1:26-28; Song 8:6-7; Matthew 19:3-12; and Ephesians 5:22-33

THREE AREAS OF LIFE IN WHICH TO SHOW UNSELFISH LOVE

1. Weary Christian, in ministry, be active (verses 2–3).
2. Weary Christian, in marriage, be pure (verses 4).
3. Weary Christian, with respect to money, be content (verses 5–6).

“I will never, no not ever,
no never leave you behind,
abandon you, desert you, give up on you,
let go of you, leave you helpless, let you down,
nor shall I ever relax My hold on you.”
