

BEHOLD YOUR GOD (The Study of God)

- How does the prophet Isaiah encourage this future generation of Jews, who had been refugees in Babylon, and now were facing a long journey home to Jerusalem and a difficult task when they arrived? (40:9)

1. Getting to know God is what _____ is all about. (John 17:3)

- Is eternal life both quantitative and qualitative?
- Is your salvation eternal & secure? (John 10:27-30)
- How does this apply to you?

2. Getting to know God better gives you needed _____ in life. (Proverbs 9:10-11)

- What does “the fear of the Lord” mean?
- How does a knowledge of God define reality for you?

3. Getting to know God better encourages you to _____ amidst life’s trials as God is your _____ and _____ and a very present _____ in trouble. (Psalm 46)

- What must you realize in every trial?
- What does “be still” mean?

4. Getting to know God better can enlarge your _____. (Matthew 6:19-34)

- Where does the value of one’s faith lie in?
- What determines whether you have a little or large faith?

5. Getting to know God better can _____ your heart. (Isaiah 57:15)

- How is God described here?
- Who does God revive?

6. Getting to know God better results in a display of _____ and the doing of godly _____ . (Daniel 11:32)

- How was this true in the book of Daniel?
- How does this apply to you?

7. Getting to know God better should cause you to _____ in the right object — God and His attributes. (Jeremiah 9:23-24)

- What are you not to glory in?
- How is God described here?
- 1 Peter 2:9
- Some closing questions and encouragements? (Isaiah 40:27-31)

* How does all this apply to you?

- If you are without Jesus Christ as your Savior?
- If you know Jesus Christ as your Savior?