Praxis

1. Search your mind for Bible for biblical statements / verses that speak generally about the security of those who believe in Jesus? What about verses that speak specifically about security of believers even when they sin?
2. What place would the reality of Eternal Security of Jesus' Sheep have in a Gospel conversation with an unbeliever? How might such a truth even be used as the central hub of a Gospel conversation?
3. What is the relationship between the perseverance of a believer and their own assurance of their Eternal Security (see 1 Pet 1:3-9, 1 John 3:8-9, 5:18). How might this relationship be misunderstood?
