

Good Tidings For The Nations

Psalm 96:1-13

Mac Williams, Pastor

October 23, 2011

1. The glory of God and the _____ of the earth.

- a. All the peoples of the earth are called to glorify God by _____ to the Lord.
- b. Believers are called to make the glorious good tidings of salvation known among the _____.

"Salvation by Christ is here spoken of as a work of _____, and that in which the glory of God shines very brightly." - Matthew Henry

- 1) The gospel should be proclaimed because the Lord is _____ and greatly to be praised.
- 2) The gospel should be proclaimed because all other gods are _____.
- c. All the peoples of the earth are called to honor the Lord with acts of _____ to Him.
 - 1) _____ are to glorify the Lord together.
 - 2) All are to glorify the Lord with _____.

3) All are called to _____ the Lord with reverence.

d. The truth to be declared among the nations is, "The Lord _____".

- 1) He is sovereign in _____.
- 2) He is sovereign in _____.
- 3) He is sovereign in _____.
- 4) He is sovereign in _____.

2. The glory of the Lord and _____.

a. _____ itself rejoices when the peoples of the earth submit to the Lord and delight in His salvation.

"Both men, and creatures that graze the plain, and the crops themselves are represented as swelling the _____ of Jehovah, and the figure is both bold and warranted, for the day shall come when every inhabited rood of ground shall yield its song, and every farmstead shall contain a church." - Charles Spurgeon

b. When Christ comes in glory on the last day, the created world will be freed from the futility brought on by the sin of man and beautifully _____.