Leviticus 19:29 Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.

- I. The purity of the women is a wall against immorality.
 - A. When the women are pure of heart, mind, and body there is hope for a people.
 - B. But when the women become profane and immoral the whole land falls into whoredom and becomes full of wickedness and is therefore doomed to judgement and destruction.
 - C. So the future of a nation or people depends upon its women being pure and not immoral and profane.
- II. All women start out as little girls – someone’s daughter.
 - A. It is then that they are made a pure woman or given to whoredom.

Proverbs 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

- B. There is a great vulnerability for parents and other when it comes to raising girls, though.
 - 1. Somehow they are able to make us believe they are less sinful than dirty old boys.
 - 2. Little girls are just so pretty and sweet and we have a hard time seeing anything wrong in them unless they really misbehave or act ugly.
 - 3. So little girls are very good at deceiving others, and that includes their parents.
- C. But little girls are exposed to the same sinful world that men are and their hearts and minds are defiled just as much as little boys are, it just doesn’t show as much a lot of the time.
- D. Little girls are also small females and they are the weaker vessel, so they are more vulnerable to the deceit of sin and the world and the devil.
 - 1. Seeing and hearing sexual talk and uncleanness does something to them that you won’t know about until you see its effect years later.
 - 2. Being exposed to things that focus on sex and sexiness when they are small (like Barbie dolls) will show the ugly fruit when they come of age and start to develop themselves.

III. How does a parent prostitute their daughter?

PROSTITUTE, v.t. L.prostitutio; pro and statuo, to set.

- 1. To offer freely to a lewd use, or to indiscriminate lewdness.

LEWD, a. Heb.

- 1. Given to the unlawful indulgence of lust; addicted to fornication or adultery; dissolute; lustful; libidinous.

DISSOLUTE, a. L.

1. Loose in behavior and morals; given to vice and dissipation; wanton; lewd; luxurious; debauched; not under the restraints of law; as a dissolute man; dissolute company.
2. Vicious; wanton; devoted to pleasure and dissipation; as a dissolute life.

LIBID'INOUS, a. L. libidinosus, from libido, lust,
Lustful; lewd; having an eager appetite for venereal pleasure

- A. Allowing anything that would weaken her resolve to be pure, or that would incline her to be lewd, is to prostitute your daughter.
 1. Modern dating is prostituting your daughter.
 2. Letting little girls play with sexy dolls, sexy coloring books, sexy children's movies, etc. is prostituting your daughter.
 3. Talking to them about boyfriends when they are just little girls is prostituting your daughter – you are training and encouraging them to be thinking about life the world's way instead of God's way.
 4. Dressing them in sexy clothes and letting them use makeup when they are little, and as they grow into young women.
 5. All this is training their mind to think of themselves in the future as sexy and promiscuous – not as a wife and mother.

- B. Using her as a prop for your pride.
 1. People just cannot resist posting pictures of their girls on social media for everyone to gaze at.
 2. It only takes an opportunity or suggestion and parents are eager to put up the best pictures they can get of their children, but especially the daughters.
 3. It has become like an addiction for people to get “likes” or “loves” on their posts, and all the comments about how beautiful your girls are.
 4. The human traffickers and perverts of the world rely on this fact and it is how they keep their business going and prospering.
 5. “Daughters Day 2020” just passed and everyone posted pictures of their daughters on Facebook for all the perverts and human traffickers to shop through.
 - a) Don't you ever wonder who or where these “days” come from and get started?
 - b) I searched this one and it started in India, where they all love their daughters so much, you know?
 - c) India is one of the worst countries for human trafficking.
 6. Search “daughter” on Facebook and the first thing that comes up is “I Love My Daughter”
 - a) It is a group to post pictures of your daughters to show how much you love them and how proud you are of them.
 - b) This Facebook group is based in Mumbai, Maharashtra – that is in India.
 - c) That city is the home of Bollywood, and the seventh most populous city in the world with 20 million people, and is one of the centers of commerce in India and the world.
 7. Think before you fall for all these Facebook posts that ask you to share, or to like some puzzle or whatever it is.
 - a) When they are asking you to respond they are fishing for your information so they can shop you or your children.

- C. Using her as a proxy for your own fantasies and lusts.
 - 1. It is always mother who is posting pictures of their daughters on social media.
 - 2. It is embarrassing how mothers will post pictures of their 12-18 year old daughters in suggestive poses, barely dressed, or wearing very immodest and sexy clothes, and makeup like a Hollywood movie star.
 - 3. They put those pictures up knowing very well that men and boys will salivate over them and it somehow gives the mother some kind of satisfaction and pride.
 - 4. That is prostituting your daughter, and when you teach her to fish with that bait you will not be happy with what she catches.
 - 5. Any man with any character or godliness does not want a whore for a wife, so that only leaves the dregs – “the lewd fellows of the baser sort” that will just use her like a shop towel and throw her away.
- D. You generally do not see fathers prostituting their daughters like you see mothers doing.
 - 1. But fathers who have pornography in their house are prostituting their daughter because she might find it and look at it and it will very likely change the course of her life because of her polluted mind.
 - 2. Fathers who do not protect their daughters from those who would push or encourage her in the direction of impurity, including her mother, is guilty of prostituting his daughter.
 - 3. Fathers who do not protect their daughters from those who would pollute their minds and hearts with lust and uncleanness are prostituting their daughter.
 - 4. So, ultimately it is the father’s responsibility to see that his daughters are not defiled in their minds, hearts, and bodies, and that they do not grow up to be immoral, unclean, profane women.
 - 5. So fathers must not be the kind of men who entertain or indulge themselves in, or show pleasure or approval of lewd women.
 - 6. Morality is like a house of cards – you can remove one of several cards and the whole thing collapses.
 - 7. Men who encourage women to be immodest, immoral, and polluted are preparing their own destruction, and the destruction of their offspring.

IV. Do not prostitute thy daughter.

- A. Do everything in your power to shield her mind and heart from the profanity and open whoredom all around us.
- B. Do everything in your power to teach her and mold her mind and heart into being pure and clean and holy.
- C. Stress to that little girl from the time she can talk and understand what you are saying that she is some man’s wife and she belongs only to him even though she hasn’t met him yet.
- D. Guard her closely from being defiled by someone else.
 - 1. Never let her stay away from home at night.
 - 2. Never leave her in the care of others.
 - 3. Never let her out of your sight when you are in public places.
- E. Preempt the damage that others can and will try to do by training and warning her ahead of time.

1. You have to be very careful to do this at the appropriate times as she grows up.
 2. Do not say too much too early – that can also work to defile her mind.
- F. Do not be slothful and careless with her soul, with her mind, or with her heart.
1. Cultivate her like a flower and she will be one someday.
 2. Leave her to herself and whoever else that gets an opportunity to cultivate her and you will not like what she turns into.
- G. Above all, teach her to love God and be real yourself.
1. Live a consistent life of purity and holiness before her that she can see and not despise.
 2. Pray for her and for her soul and for her future husband and children.
- H. Not only our family and offspring are at stake, but your whole nation and people depend upon how we raise our daughters.
