Psalm 7:7-11 Tune: Martyrdom, #85

“God has promised us a crown of glory, and promised to set it shortly on our heads, yet we will not so much as think of it. . . . By believing are we filled with joy and peace, and no longer than we continue believing. It is in hope the saints rejoice, and no longer than they continue hoping. God's Spirit works comfort in us by setting our own spirits at work upon the promises, and raising our thoughts to the place of our comforts. . . . He does not kindle our joys while we are idle, or taken up with other things. . . . Learn the art of heavenly-mindedness. . . . A heart in heaven will be a most excellent preservative against the temptations to sin.

Richard Baxter (17th century English Puritan)

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
