

GOSPEL OF MARK
Gospel Good Deeds
Mark 14:3-9

Mac Williams, Pastor
October 5, 2014

1. Gospel good deeds give testimony of a life that has been _____ by Christ.

- a. These good deeds are an expression of a _____ devoted to Christ.

- b. These good deeds give evidence that Jesus is Lord; He is more _____ than anything else in life.

2. It is _____ who determines if a good deed is truly good.

- a. Good deeds should be evaluated by God's _____.

"In general good works are those which conform to the _____ of God as revealed in the Scriptures. More specifically, good works are concrete expressions of kindness and generosity, especially of a practical and financial kind." - Samuel Waldron

- b. Good deeds may actually be openly _____ by others.

"(The disciples) ought to have inquired more _____ if the action deserved reproof; more especially when their Master was present, by whose decision it was their duty to abide." - John Calvin

- c. God can give our good deeds an even _____ purpose than we intended.

3. Gospel good deeds serve as an adornment to the _____ as it is shared in all the world.

- a. Professing _____ in the gospel is an adornment to Jesus Christ as the only Savior and Lord.

- b. Gospel good deeds speak of the _____ of Christ's saving work in the lives of sinful people.