

1 PETER

God's Promises In Suffering

1 Peter 5:10-11

Mac Williams, Pastor

November 10, 2019

1. Believers will be encouraged in suffering when they remember who their God is and to what He has _____ them.

- a. God has immense riches of _____ out of which He gives generously to all believers in all circumstances of life.
- b. God has effectually called every believer to share in His eternal _____.
- c. All that God has given and promises to give to His people comes to them in and through _____.

2. The God of all grace has promised that He Himself will _____ His children to persevere in their faith even through times of great suffering.

- a. Believers are promised that God will perfect and _____ them.

b. Believers are promised that God will confirm and _____ them.

c. Believers are promised that God will strengthen them in their _____.

d. Believers are promised that God will give them a rootedness and grounding in their _____.

3. Believers are greatly helped in their faith in God's promises by _____ in His absolute and eternal dominion over all.