

A View of Society

The Corrupted Norms

Elkanah's two wives

Eli's sons Hophni and Phinehas

The Captive Senses

Eli's response to his sons

Eli's presumption of Hannah's drunkenness

The Contradictory Stand

Hannah continued to trust in God and His word

She disagreed with society

Solomon says, there is nothing new under the sun

The Value of a Son (or Daughter)

God balances out the story of a son, by the story of this daughter

The Enrichment of Life

Many joys, many lessons

Insights, revelations, fears, joys, anxieties, pleasure

Their Effect IN Life

Influences upon those around us

Samuel to have massive impact

The Veracity of Her Speech

The Plea

It was real, in faith silent in her heart, v13

The Promise

To lend the child to the Lord

The Presentation

To the temple where corruption was rife

She committed her son to the Lord who kept him

Samuel heard the voice of God