Doxology (Psalter 196)

Benediction

1. Our tendency is to focus on the great fish in this story. Instead of the great fish, where should we focus our attention?
2. Why does the LORD often set His people apart?
3. *How did Jonah demonstrate that he had come to an end of himself?
Have you come to an end of yourself?*
4. What is the basis for Jonah's only hope in the belly of the fish?
5. What four ways did Jonah demonstrate his faith from the belly of the fish?

SUNDAY EVENING

Lord's Day 41

Do You Not Know: You Shall Not Commit Adultery

1. For your body belongs to the Lord
2. For your body is not for fornication
3. For your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit

Psalter 328 (standing)

Closing Prayer

Psalter 271

Doxology (Psalter 197)

Benediction

1. What were the two slogans that the Corinthians used to justify their breaking of the seventh commandment?
2. What does Paul mean when he says “the body is ... for the Lord; and the Lord for the body”? How does this make sexual immorality so abhorrent?
3. What is the imagery behind the word joined found in verse 16 and 17? What is the believer joined to? How does this make seventh commandment sins such a contradiction for the believer?
4. Why does Paul say “Flee fornication”? Why not fight? Are you fleeing sexual immorality?
5. What does it mean that the believer's body is the temple of the Holy Spirit? What are the implications of this and how should this impact the way you live?
