well knowing that He sustains us.

2) The Lord can give us _____ to persevere even in the midst of threatening situations.

3) The Lord can break the power and restrain the malicious intentions of His _____.

"When God takes vengeance upon the ungodly, He will smite in such a manner as to make them feel His almightiness in every stroke. _____ His power shall be exercised in punishing and none in pitying. O that every obstinate sinner would think of this, and consider his unmeasurable boldness in thinking himself able to grapple with Omnipotence!" - Stephen Charnock

3. Our prayers are directed to a God who delights in _____ His people.

a. Pray for God to _____ and
