2*. What rich benefits does justification yield to the believer?

3. Why is the word "only" – the opening word of the answer to question 60, and used five (!) times in Lord's Day 23 – so significant?

4. Why must God impute righteousness to a sinner before He can declare him righteous?

5. What three aspects of our sinnership are mentioned in the answer to question 60?

6. What determines the believer's measure of assurance that he is justified before God?

7. Why is it so important to understand that the exercise of faith is not a meritorious work?

8*. How does John 3:36 highlight the importance of faith in Christ?

Question for Self-reflection

Are you righteous before God?

* Questions for younger children

1. Why do we, as sinners, need to be justified?
