

WORSHIPING ON THE LORD'S DAY

November 16, 2014

Worship, as God intended, is a supernatural event. As we enter into this service of worship, we cross the threshold of the secular to the sacred, from the common to the uncommon, from the profane to the holy. Prepare yourself therefore for this most holy convocation!

We Confess Our Sin

Blessed Lord, bend Your pitying eye of love and mercy upon us today. Draw near to us, as we venture once more on praying and on pleading ground. Alas! O God, we have sinned against light and love, warning and mercy, grace and privilege. The retrospect of life is a retrospect of guilt. We mourn over our manifold shortcomings: the alienation of our heart from You, the fitfulness of our spiritual frames, and the ebbings and flowings in the tide of our love.

Blessed Jesus! We flee anew to the pavilion of Your love! We have no other hope or refuge but in Your finished work, Your matchless atonement, and Your spotless righteousness! There is in You an all-sufficiency for every need. Finite necessities cannot exhaust infinite fullness. Let us hear Your voice saying, "Your sins which are many, are all forgiven!"

We Thank Him For His Forgiveness

God Calls us to Worship Thru Dedication Eph. 6:10, 18
