

GOSPEL OF MARK

A Compassionate Savior Mark 6:33-44

Mac Williams, Pastor
November 17, 2013

1. The tragedy of being in the wilderness like _____ without a shepherd.

- a. There is no shepherd to give proper _____.
- b. There is no shepherd to give necessary _____.
- c. There is no shepherd who truly cares about basic _____.

2. Jesus is the compassionate _____.

- a. Jesus shows genuine _____ and compassion.

*"So strongly was Christ moved by this feeling of compassion, that though, in common with His disciples, He was fatigued and almost worn out by uninterrupted toil, He did not _____ Himself."
- John Calvin*

1) Those who are truly _____ sheep will hear His voice and follow Him.

2) The _____ at large is also loved by the Lord.

b. Jesus gives clear and trustworthy _____.

c. Jesus ministers through His _____.

*"He gave them loaves in order that in their _____ the astonishing increase might take place, and that they might thus be the ministers of Christ's divine power."
- John Calvin*

d. Jesus provides for His people as they _____ Him first.

"In Him there is enough for all that _____ to Him, enough to fill the soul, to fill the treasures; none are sent away empty away from Christ, but those who come to Him full of themselves." - Matthew Henry