

Study Questions for A Hind Let Loose.

PERIOD III.

46. In contrast to the former period our author outlined, how is the testimony of this period executed? _____

47. For what causes was the testimony carried on during this period?

48. Wherein does the shame and stupidity of the generation to whom Shields was writing appear?

49. What maxim of the early church proved true during the reign of the Queen Dowager?

50. What was the result of this persecution?

A. _____

B. _____

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

C. _____

a. _____

b. _____

51. By the worship, discipline and government of the church, what, according to Shields, is displayed again to the eyes and knowledge of men?

52. What were the two effects of the various covenants enumerated by our author?

A. _____

B. _____

53. Why did Mr. Shields mention the various acts and effects of covenanting among their forefathers?

54. For what reasons, in 1559, did the Scottish ministers declare the Queen deposed from her reign?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

E. _____

55. What two important documents were framed and adopted in 1560?

A. _____

B. _____

56. Who adopted these documents?

57. According to Shields, how was the cause of reformation advanced by this establishment?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

58. What did Mary, the Queen's daughter, do, that caused such controversy?

59. According to John Knox, what was the thing most to be feared in Scotland?

60. Shields attributes the blunting of the testimony of ministers against idolatry to what?

61. What double battle ensued from this?

A. _____

B. _____

62. What did the reformation in Scotland have in common with all other protestant churches?

63. What was its peculiar advantage?

64. According to our author, what practice is worthy of all imitation?

65. According to Knox, do those who are not the actors in iniquity avoid God's punishment?

66. What is the obligation of lawful magistrates under the gospel?

67. According to the Confession of 1560, is it lawful to resist superior powers?

68. Does capacity to act make something a duty?

69. According to Shields, is it ever lawful and laudable for private persons to execute righteous judgment upon the enemies of God and mankind? _____ If so, when?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

E. _____