

1689 London Baptist Confession
Chapter III - Of God's Decree

I. God hath decreed...all things whatsoever comes to pass in Himself from all eternity

by the most wise and holy counsel of His own will freely

and unchangeably

II. yet to as thereby is God neither the author of sin nor hath fellowship with any therein nor is violence offered to the will of the creature nor yet is the liberty, or contingency, of second causes taken away but rather established.

III. in which appears his wisdom in disposing of things and power, and faithfulness in accomplishing his decree.
