

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Lord's Day, November 28, 2021

LORD, I have loved the habitation of Your house, And the place where Your glory dwells. ...But as for me, I will walk in my integrity; Redeem me and be merciful to me. My foot stands in an even place; In the congregations I will bless the LORD. ... (Psalm 26:8,11,12)

(Moment of Silent Meditation)

Sermon: Matthew 7:1-6

Jesus teaches about making personal judgments when we see sin.

We see:

1. Unmerciful judgment of others affects how we will be judged (vv. 1,2).
2. Before judging others, we must first know God's merciful judgment (vv.3-5).
3. The terrible results of being unmerciful in judgment (v.6).

Questions for discussion: [see on the table]

The church is called to be a confessing church, that she may be, the pillar and ground of the truth (1Tim. 3:15,16)

The Westminster Confession of Faith

Chapter 19—Of the Law of God

WCF 19.5 The moral law doth forever bind all, as well justified persons as others, to the obedience thereof;(1) and that, not only in regard of the matter contained in it, but also in respect of the authority of God, the Creator, who gave it.(2) Neither doth Christ, in the Gospel, any way dissolve, but much strengthen this obligation.(3)

WCF 19.6 Although true believers be not under the law as a covenant of works, to be thereby justified or condemned;(1) yet is it of great use to them, as well as to others; in that, as a rule of life, informing them of the will of God and their duty, it directs and binds them to walk accordingly;(2) discovering also the sinful pollutions of their nature, hearts, and lives;(3) so as, examining themselves thereby, they may come to further conviction of, humiliation for, and hatred against sin;(4) together with a clearer sight of the need they have of Christ, and the perfection of His obedience.(5) It is likewise of use to regenerate, to restrain their corruptions, in that it forbids sin;(6) and the threatenings of it serve to show what even their sins deserve, and what afflictions in this life they may expect for them, although freed from the curse thereof threatened in the law.(7) The promises of it, in like manner, show them God's approbation of obedience, and what blessings they may expect upon the performance thereof,(8) although not as due to them by the law as a covenant of works:(9) so as a man's doing good, and refraining from evil because the law encourageth to the one, and deterreth from the other, is no evidence of his being under the law, and not under grace.(10)

WCF 19.7 Neither are the formentioned uses of the law contrary to the grace of the Gospel, but do sweetly comply with it;(1) the Spirit of Christ subduing and enabling the will of man to do that freely and cheerfully, which the will of God revealed in the law requireth to be done.(2)

Questions for discussion
[Sermon: Matthew 7:1-6]

1. How should we answer someone who says, “don’t judge” and then quotes v.1 of our text?

2. What is “judgment without mercy”?

3. In v.3, how can we “look” differently at a brother (in sin) as compared to “looking” at ourselves?

4. So, should the speck in the brothers’ eye be removed? (explain)

5. How should you answer someone who says, “I don’t want to talk to him/her about their sin, I’m not perfect either”?

6. How do we bring disgrace to the Law by unmerciful judgment?

7. Why does Jesus speak about dogs and swine?
