

A Treatise On Afflictions

By Thomas Case

Edited By Dr. Gerald Mick

Narrated By Duane A. Linn

May 2015

www.digitalpuritan.net

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter One. What Lessons God Teaches by Affliction 1. Compassion 2. How to prize mercies 3. Self-denial and submission 4. Humility and meekness 5. Discovers unknown corruption 6. Teaches how to pray 7. Acquaintance with the Word 8. Necessity of sound evidence for heaven 9. What a bitter thing to grieve his Spirit 10. Draws the soul into sweet communion with himself 11. The exercise and improvement of grace 12. Excellency of the life of faith 13. God takes us off from self-confidence 14. God makes himself known 15. The duties of a suffering condition 16. The fruits and advantages of a suffering condition 17. The one thing needful 18. Time redemption 19. To estimate the sufferings of Christ 20. To prize and long for heaven

Chapter Two. The Nature or Properties of Divine Teaching 1. An inward teaching 2. A clear, convincing teaching 3. Experimental teaching 4. Powerful teaching 5. Sweet and pleasant teaching 6. Abiding teaching

Chapter Three. How Affliction Lieth in Order to Instruction 1. By correction God takes down pride 2. Affliction is the forge wherein he softens the iron heart 3. By chastisement man is made more attentive to God 4. By affliction God opens the eye of the soul

Chapter Four. The Grounds and Demonstrations of the Point 1. The lessons themselves which God teaches 2. The nature and properties of divine teaching 3. A teaching chastisement the fruit of distinguishing love 4. A teaching chastisement a branch of the covenant of grace 5. A teaching chastisement the purchase of Christ's death 6. A teaching chastisement the result of the offices of Christ

Chapter Five. Use of Information 1. Affliction is not enough to evidence a happy man 2. Affliction is not enough to conclude a man miserable 3. Deliverance out of trouble is not enough to make a happy man 4. How to judge of affliction 5. They may be blessed whom the world counts miserable 6. Is chastisement a blessing when accompanied with instruction?

7. A suffering condition is not so formidable as flesh and blood represent it 8. The reason why God keeps his people so long under the rod 9. What unteachable creatures we are by nature 10. How much gracious hearts are in love with the Word

Chapter Six. Use of Exhortation 1. To those who are not in affliction 2. To such as are yet in affliction 3. To such as are come out of affliction 4. To parents and governors

Case, Thomas. A Treatise on Afflictions . The Digital Puritan. Kindle Edition.