

Something More Sure

2 Peter 1:12-21

The Spirit of God causes the reading and especially the preaching of the word to enlighten, convince, and humble sinners. The Spirit drives sinners out of themselves and draws them to Christ; he conforms them to his image and subdues them to his will; he strengthens them against temptations and corrupting influences; and he builds them up in God's grace and establishes their hearts in holiness and comfort through faith to salvation.
