

The Life of Faith
23– Faith That Knows the True Value of Things
Hebrews 11:24-25
sermonaudio.com/vbcny 1/14/2018

- I. The Overestimated Value of the Treasures of this World
 - A. Their Value is Arbitrary and Variable

 - B. The Acquisition of Worldly Treasure Often Comes as a Very High Cost

 - C. The Loss of Worldly Treasure is Imminent and Certain

- II. The Underestimated Value of the Reproach of Christ
 - A. Contentment and Satisfaction Come from Subtraction Rather Than Addition

 - B. Godly Character is the True Measure of Wealth

 - C. Christlikeness is the True Status Symbol of True Wealth

- III. The Inestimable Value of the Christian's Eternal Reward
 - A. The Richness of the Christian's Eternal Reward is Beyond Measure and Comprehension

I Cor. 2:9; Romans 8:18; I John 3:2

 - B. The Perfection of the Christian's Reward Will Never Be Tarnished Nor Their Enjoyment of It Ever Diminished

Matthew 6:20; I Peter 1:3-4