

1. Do you agree with Dr. Moehler's assessment that "cultural Christianity" is largely dead in America in 2019? While attendance numbers may be lower, could that be a positive development for the church?
2. In what ways do the Gibeonites prove themselves as faithful followers of Yahweh in Chapter 10?
3. The text leaves no doubt who wins the battle of Gibeon. What details from the text attribute the victory to God and God alone?
4. Why is it significant that "the Lord listened to the voice of a man?"
5. How do you balance God's sovereignty with the admonition from Scripture to "pray without ceasing?" Why do we pray?
