

Welcome to our visitors

We extend a special welcome to our visitors. Please join us as we seek to glorify God in our worship and in our enjoying of the Sabbath Day.

Our Church: Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church is a member congregation of the Midwest Presbytery of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA). You can learn more about us at www.dallasrpc.org

This week:

The Lord's Day:	Morning worship	10:30 am
	Lunch/fellowship	12:15 pm
	Catechism	1:30 pm
	Afternoon worship	2:00 pm

Prayer Requests for the week:

- for our church: strength and endurance in our work, wisdom for our Elders, spiritual growth of our families, blessings from our times of family worship, for our seminary student (Rom), for Nick's Deacon training in 2018
- for those who are sick and recovering: Joe Smuts, Minsol Yang
- for our sister churches: the RPCNA and the Midwest Presbytery, for the persecuted church overseas
- for the Dallas/Fort Worth area: that the gospel would be proclaimed, that the church would worship as God has commanded, that Christ's Kingship would be recognized, that God's law would be respected, that the Sabbath would be kept

Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church

A Congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)
Meeting at: 1008 West Erwin Avenue, McKinney, TX 75069

34 Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever. 35 And say, "Save us, O God of our salvation; Gather us together, and deliver us from the Gentiles, To give thanks to Your holy name, To triumph in Your praise."

36 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel From everlasting to everlasting!
And all the people said, "Amen!" and praised the Lord.

1 Chronicles 16:34-36

WCF Ch. 7. Of God's Covenant with Man. 6. Under the gospel, when Christ, the substance, was exhibited, the ordinances in which this covenant is dispensed are the preaching of the Word, and the administration of the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper: which, though fewer in number, and administered with more simplicity, and less outward glory, yet, in them, it is held forth in more fullness, evidence, and spiritual efficacy, to all nations, both Jews and Gentiles; and is called the new Testament. There are not therefore two covenants of grace, differing in substance, but one and the same, under various dispensations.

WCF Ch. 8. Of Providence. 4. This office the Lord Jesus did most willingly undertake; which that He might discharge, He was made under the law, and did perfectly fulfill it; endured most grievous torments immediately in His soul, and most painful sufferings in His body; was crucified, and died, was buried, and remained under the power of death, yet saw no corruption. On the third day He arose from the dead, with the same body in which He suffered, with which also He ascended into heaven, and there sitteth at the right hand of His Father, making intercession, and shall return, to judge men and angels, at the end of the world.
