

CORNERSTONE
BAPTIST CHURCH

“A Clear Division in Judgment”

Isaiah 65:1-16

- I. Perhaps in answer to the question about God’s silence in 64:12, God replies that He has been _____ while Israel has been _____ (65:1-7).

Matthew 11:24

- II. Using the metaphor of picking out some prime grapes in a cluster of mostly rotten grapes, God will harvest a _____ of Israel for blessing (65:8-10).

- III. God proclaims a clear separation between the destiny of the _____ and the destiny of His _____ (65:11-16).

CORNERSTONE
BAPTIST CHURCH

“A Clear Division in Judgment”

Isaiah 65:1-16

- I. Perhaps in answer to the question about God’s silence in 64:12, God replies that He has been _____ while Israel has been _____ (65:1-7).

Matthew 11:24

- II. Using the metaphor of picking out some prime grapes in a cluster of mostly rotten grapes, God will harvest a _____ of Israel for blessing (65:8-10).

- III. God proclaims a clear separation between the destiny of the _____ and the destiny of His _____ (65:11-16).
-