QUOTE

"And then, consider all the Sabbaths and sermons, prayers and praises we have had, how many hundred thousands they will amount to! It is sad that men should lie under all these with few or no challenges or without minding repentance or thinking of the necessity of employing the High Priest for doing them away; therefore we should accept these challenges and give Him employment, who only can bear the iniquity of our holy things. If this [does not] bring down self-righteousness and convince you of the necessity of a Mediator, what will do it?"

~James Durham, A Practical Exposition of the Ten Commandments

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Westminster Larger Catechism and the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice is available on the book table and in the Church library.
