SUNDAY EVENING

1. How was Paul's affection for the Romans promoted?

2. In what ways did his appreciation show the "diversity, yet unity" principle?

3. How did the Romans understand this text? How should we understand this text?

4. What might a wrong understanding of this have looked like?

5. What might a right understanding of this have looked like?

6. It is important to apply this rightly. What does the application not mean?

7. What principles were given for following through on this important principle?
