What is legalism?

Legalism
was dividing
the church

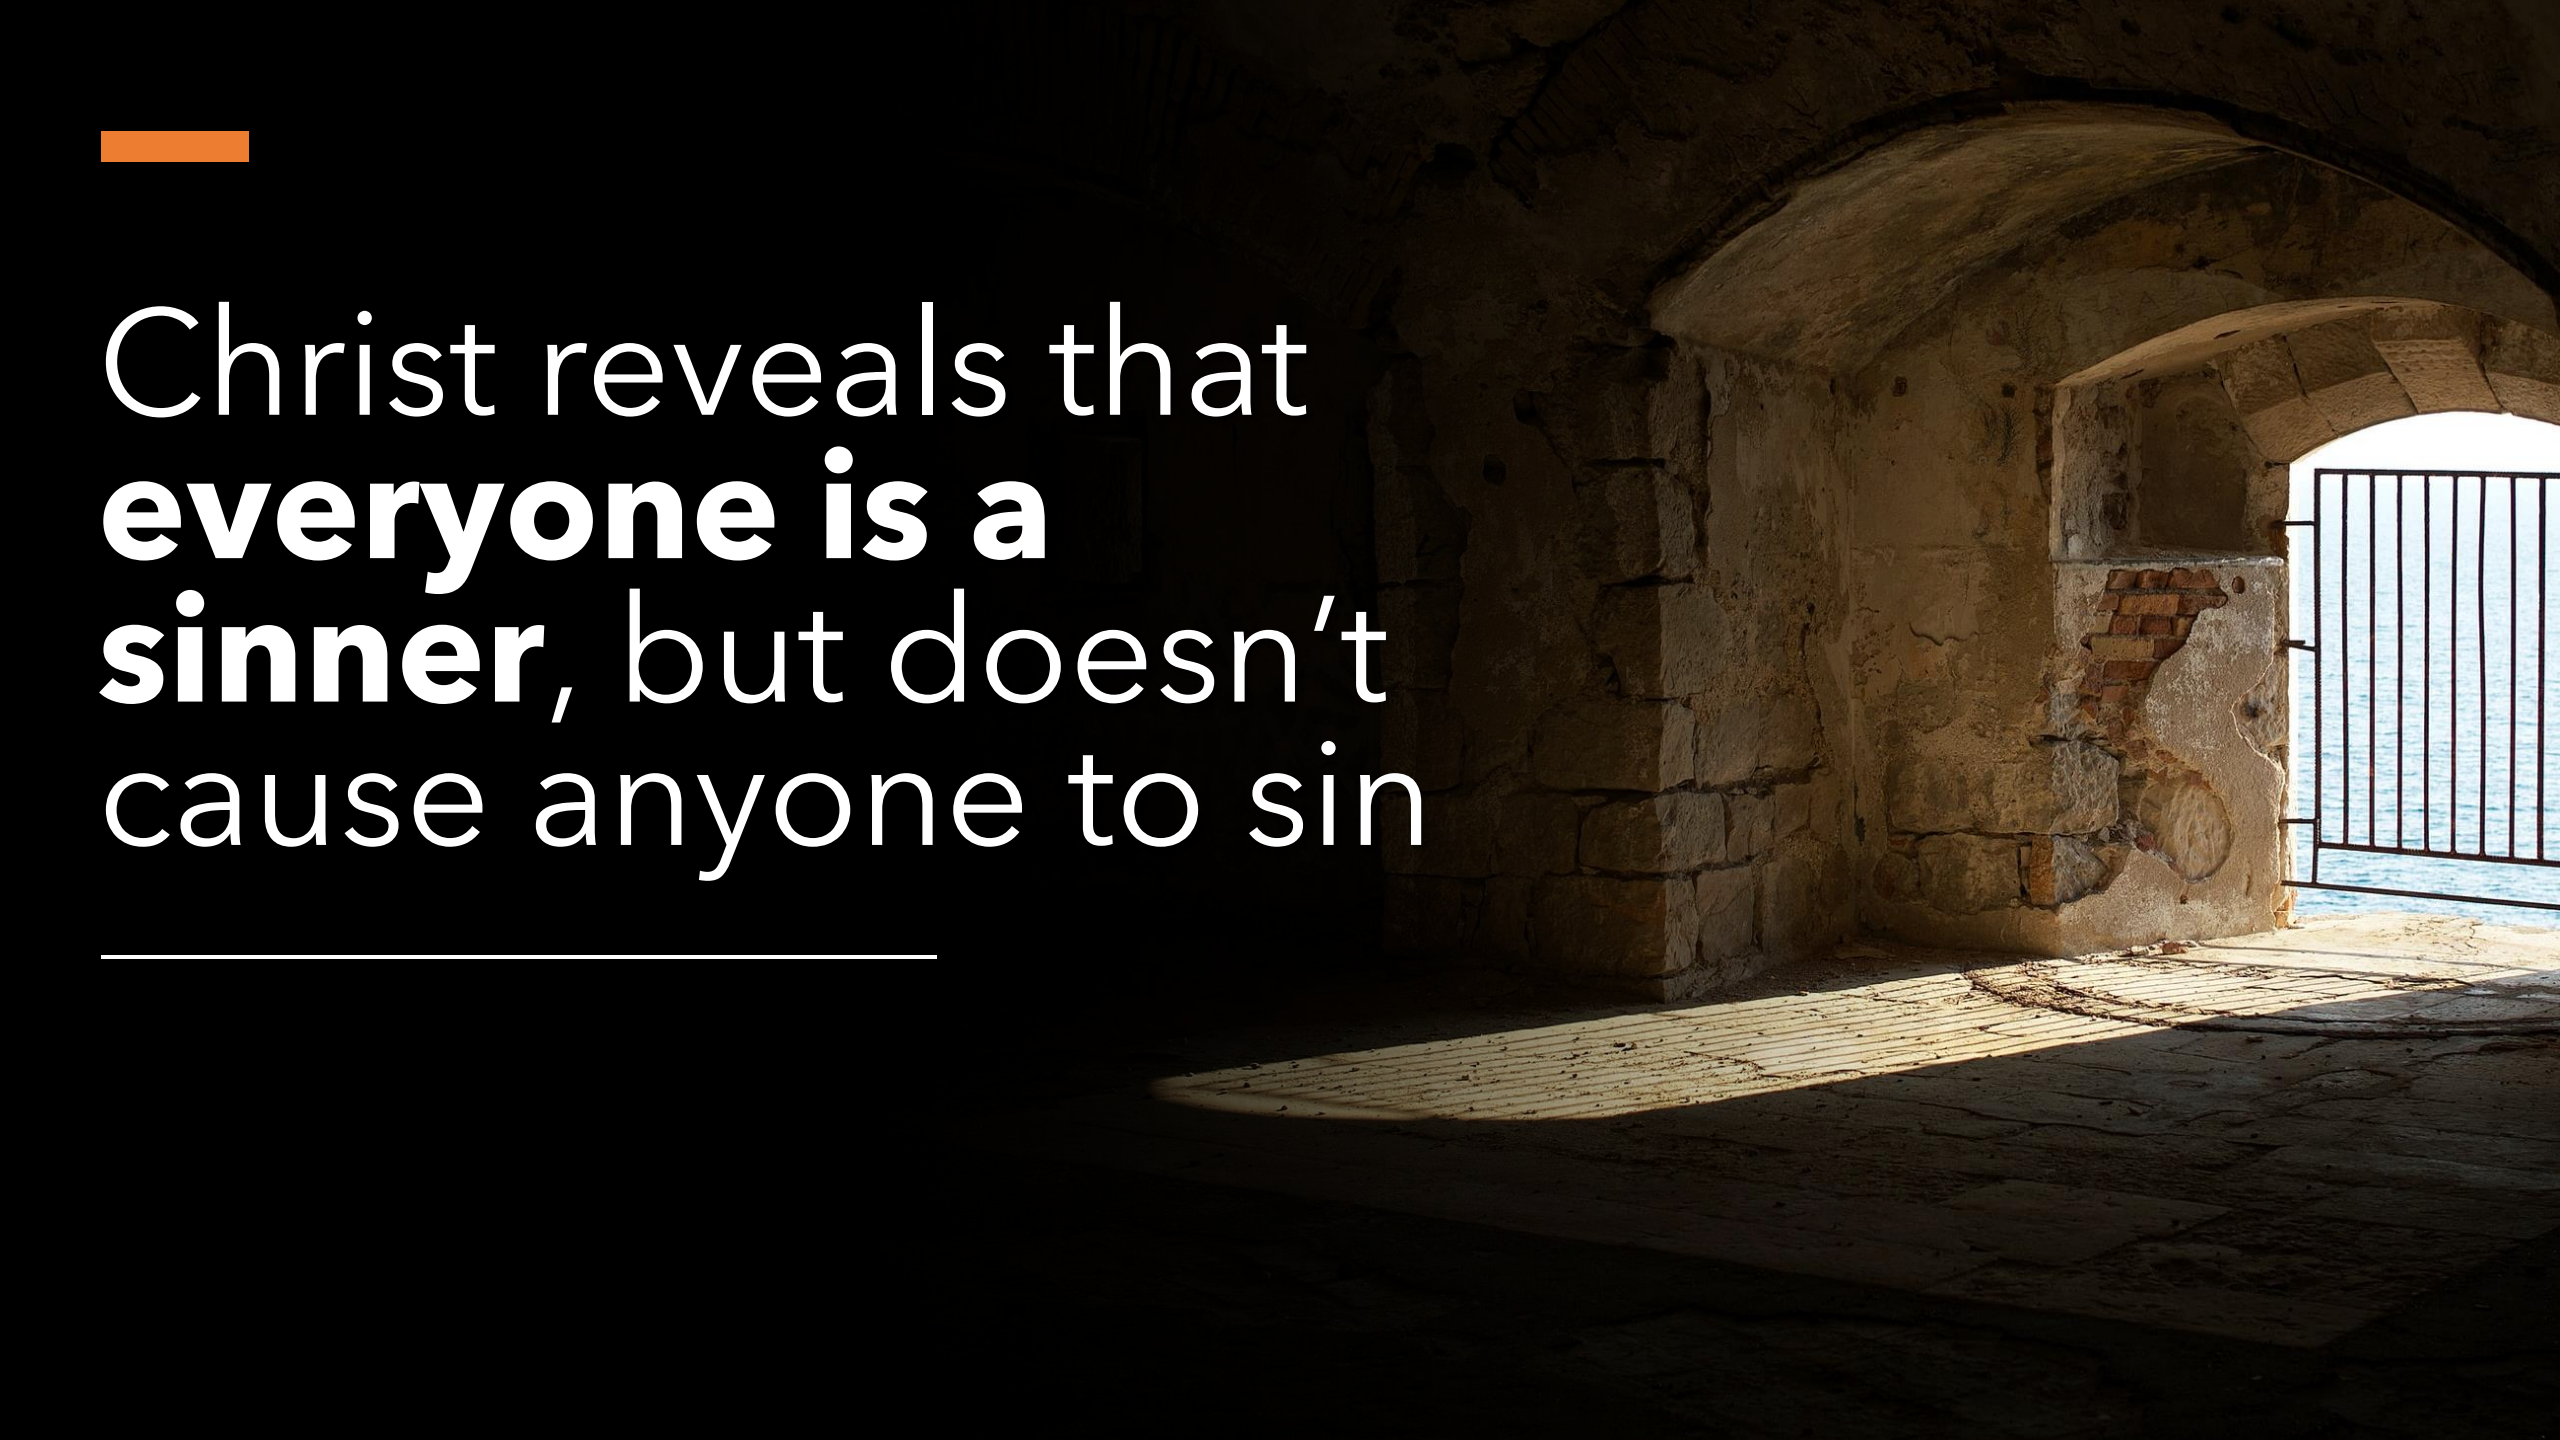

A photograph of a stone archway leading to a view of the ocean, with a metal railing in the foreground. The scene is dimly lit, with sunlight streaming in from the right, casting shadows on the stone floor. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Catering to legalistic people
is hypocritical

Obeying OT laws
could never make them right with God

Christ reveals that everyone is a sinner, but doesn't cause anyone to sin

A painting depicting Paul on a horse, with Jesus and another man in the background. Paul is in the foreground, riding a dark horse, looking back over his shoulder with a surprised expression. He is wearing a blue tunic and a yellow sash. Jesus is in the background, standing on a hill, wearing a white robe and holding a staff. Another man in a white robe is also in the background, holding a staff. The scene is set in a landscape with trees and a blue sky.

Living by the law
ended for Paul when he received
new life from God

Living by the law

The Law

Christ

Moving on from the law does not negate
God's grace

Paul now trusted Christ to empower him from within

Don't let legalism pull you into hypocrisy

Rely on Christ within you to live the Christian life
