

Come. See. Follow.

John 1:35-51

Pastor Conley

Review:

God gives us clear instruction as to how to do “church life by the book.” Discipleship work is the work that our Lord did during his time here on earth, it is the work that he has given to his disciples, and it is the work that the church is supposed to continue. The great commission in Matthew 28:19, tells us to “make disciples of all nations.” This is the calling God has given our church and we its members.

Outline Review:

- I. Come: Invitation – Opening your life up to others
- II. See: Investigation – Helping others explore the truth
- III. Follow: Invitation – Guiding others by your example

Application:

1. Where do you see the “come, see, and follow” in John 1:35-51?
2. Who is an example of someone in your life who has invited you to “come, see, and follow?” How did they do it? At the time did you know it?
3. Who is someone for to whom you have reached out to in this way?
4. How do we help people come? What keeps us from doing this? What are some practical things you can do to help others come?
5. How do we help people see? What stands in the way? What must we know before we can help others?
6. How do we help people follow? If someone watched you for a week, would they know you were a Christian?
