V. The Sepulchre Sealed

v 61 - 66

The religious enemies of Jesus begged the Roman governor to set a watch to secure and seal the tomb of Jesus.

They had heard, second hand, of His claims to rise on the third day.

And they consulted and labored to prevent such an event from occurring.

Their efforts provide a marvelous confirmation of His bodily resurrection.

Roman guards were both ferocious and faithful.

No man dared to violate Jesus burial place and steal His body with them on watch.
