

ISAIAH
Babylon Is Doomed
Isaiah 47:1-15

Mac Williams, Pastor
October 2, 2016

1. God pronounces _____ on Babylon, the enemy of God and of His people.

- a. God will thoroughly _____
His enemies though they are powerful in the eyes of the world.
- b. God will _____ His enemies
for their foolish and shameful ways.

2. The judgment God pronounces on His enemies is well _____.

- a. The Lord often uses His enemies as instruments to chastise His people, but they are judged for their excessive _____.
- b. God judges His enemies because they blaspheme
Him by proudly considering themselves to be
_____.

c. God judges His enemies because they look to things like _____ for revelation
instead of His Word.

d. God judges His enemies because they _____
Him as their Savior.

3. Even in judgment God is revealed as the glorious _____ of His people.

- a. It is in God's judgment of Babylon that Israel is redeemed from _____.
- b. The people of God should always take comfort in the fact that the Lord will never forget His
_____ with them.