“It seemed intended by the blessed providence of God that I should be blind all my life, and I thank him for the dispensation. If perfect earthly sight were offered me tomorrow, I would not accept it. I might not have sung hymns to the praise of God if I had been distracted by the beautiful and interesting things about me.”

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
O what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood!

This is my story, this is my song
Praising my Savior all the day long
This is my story, this is my song
Praising my Savior all the day long

An aerial, slightly blurred photograph of a city street grid. A prominent white building with a flat roof is visible in the center-right. The streets are a mix of light and dark tones, suggesting different materials or shadows. The overall tone is muted and atmospheric.

Perfect submission, perfect delight
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight
Angels descending bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love

An aerial photograph of a residential development, showing a grid of streets and several buildings. A central area is covered in green grass, possibly a park or a common area. The image is slightly blurred and has a soft, ethereal quality.

Perfect submission, all is at rest
I in my Savior am happy and blest
Watching and waiting, looking above
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love
