2250 Morriss Road, Suite 214 Flower Mound, TX 75028

Save now, I pray, O Lord; O Lord, I pray, send now prosperity.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

We have blessed you from the house of the Lord.

God is the Lord, and He has given us light;

Bind the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar.

You are my God, and I will praise You; You are my God, I will exalt You.
Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.

Psalm 118:25-29

WLC 167: Q. How is our baptism to be improved by us? A. The needful but much neglected duty of improving our Baptism, is to be performed by us all our life long, especially in the time of temptation, and when we are present at the administration of it to others, by serious and thankful consideration of the nature of it, and of the ends for which Christ instituted it, the privileges and benefits conferred and sealed thereby, and our solemn vow made therein; by being humbled for our sinful defilement, our falling short of, and walking contrary to, the grace of the Baptism and our engagements; by growing up to assurance of pardon of sin, and of all other blessings sealed to us in that Sacrament; by drawing strength from the death and resurrection of Christ, into whom we are baptized, for the mortifying of sin, and quickening of grace; and by endeavoring to live by faith, to have our conversation in holiness and righteousness, as those that have therein given up their names to Christ; and to walk in brotherly love, as being baptized by the same Spirit into one body.

- I. How do we improve our baptism?
- a. By serious and thankful consideration of:
- i. baptism itself
- ii. the ends for which Christ instituted baptism
- iii. the privileges and benefits conferred / sealed by baptism
- iv. our solemn vows made in baptism

- I. The road to Nineveh
- a. It is often a road of:
- i. Persecution from enemies
- ii. Trouble because we obey God
- iii. Darkness from circumstances
- iv. Famine hiding our blessings
- b. It must be seen as a road of:
- i. Peace with God
- ii. Comfort from God
- iii. Clarity from the means of grace
- iv. Blessing from obedience
- II. The road to Tarshish
- a. It seems to be a road of:
- i. Peace because it ends conflict
- ii. Comfort because we get what we want
- iii. Clarity because we are where we want to be
- iv. Blessing with gold and silver
- b. It must be seen as a road of:
- i. Persecution from God
- ii. Trouble because of our sin
- iii. Darkness without the means of grace
- iv. Famine without blessing
