1. The Lord encourages His sheep by speaking of their great _____.

- a. As Shepherd, Jesus Christ has been ordained to be the _____ between God and man.
- b. Christ the Shepherd is the perfect Mediator because only He is fully _____ and fully _____.
- c. The Lord decreed that Christ the righteous Shepherd be struck down by the sword of _____ for sinners He came to save.

2. The Lord prepares the sheep for great _____.

- a. The sheep will be _____ as a result of their Shepherd being struck down.
- b. The Lord promises to place His hand upon His sheep to _____ them together.

- c. The Lord has promised that He will _____ the true believers from the untrue.

3. The Lord promises to _____ His sheep even through the most fiery trials.

- a. It is through great trials that the faith of believers is _____ and proven to be genuine.
- b. As the Lord preserves believers in their trials, their communion with Him _____ deeper.
  - 1) The Lord gives His sheep great confidence that they can _____ on the Lord, knowing that He will answer them.
  - 2) The Lord enables His sheep to _____ in their covenant relationship with Him through Christ.
