

PSALMS

The King and His Enemies Psalm 21:1-13

Mac Williams, Pastor
November 6, 2022

“The prayer which the church offers up at the conclusion of the preceding Psalm now issues in a hymn of praise, the result of a believing view of the glory which is to follow, when Messiah’s sufferings are ended.” - R.H. Ryland

1. Believers have every reason to _____ in the glorious victory their King has acquired.

- a. Rejoice! The Lord has shown Himself _____ in acquiring salvation.
- b. Rejoice! The Lord has given the Son His heart’s desire—the salvation of sinners.
- c. Rejoice! The Lord has exalted the Christ as the great Savior _____.
- d. Rejoice! The kingdom of the Savior King endures forever and ever.
- e. Rejoice in the splendor and majesty and _____ of the Savior King.

2. The enemies of Christ the King have every reason to be _____.

- a. Christ and His kingdom will not be cast down no matter how much it is _____.
- b. Those who persist in being an enemy of Christ and His kingdom will not be able to hide from Him.
- c. Those who persist in being an enemy of Christ will endure His fiery _____.
- d. Tragically, the children of the King’s enemies often continue in the ways of their parents and they too will fail and will perish.
- e. The King will see to it that the _____ of His enemies will not ultimately succeed.