

Study Questions for A Hind Let Loose.

PERIOD V.

104. What is peculiar about this period and its advance of the testimony?

105. What was the matter of this period's testimony?

106. What did the successive periods of testimony oppose?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

E. _____

107. What did the "free" general assembly of 1638 condemn?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

E. _____

F. _____

G. _____

108. What did the "free" general assembly of 1638 approve?

A. _____

B. _____

109. When England was awakened by the glory of the Lord, what did she do?

110. Why did she appeal to Scotland?

111. Why was England grieved? What did she fear?

A. _____

B. _____

112. What was the result of this “appeal” from England to Scotland?

113. What was the effect of the action taken?

114. When and how was this confirmed?

115. Who were the Scottish commissioners chosen to go to the Westminster Assembly?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

E. _____

116. What principal things did the Solemn League and Covenant contemplate?

A. _____

B. _____

117. Why did the Kirk of Scotland protest against the execution of Charles I.?

118. Who was the only faithful witness against bringing back Charles II.? Why?

119. What was Charles II. required to do to gain the support of the Kirk of Scotland?

120. Who carried on a most violent defection from the covenanted reformation? By doing what?

A. _____

B. _____

121. What signal event occurred when the “public resolutions” were concluded?

122. After Cromwell’s death, who brought Charles II. back to power?

123. How was the testimony carried on during this period? And against whom?

124. If some were to condemn those suffering in Shield’s time for these things, according to our author, they must also condemn who?

125. What kind of pattern did the sufferers of this period leave us?

126. What, in Shield’s day, signally demonstrated the abandonment of this pattern by many?

127. What demonstration of the strictness of those during this period does our author evince?

128. What contentings, by the general assembly, are brought forth to evidence this further?

A. _____

B. _____

129. What kind of associations would Shields have us to note as being reprobated by the faithful in this period?

130. What dying man left his testimony against these associations?

131. What objection does Shield's consider, drawn from the practice of those during this period, that many in his day were advancing?

132. What reasons does he give for rejecting their conclusions drawn from this period?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

133. During this period, we have an illustrious testimony to what principle?

134. What were the reforming fathers of this period able to distinguish regarding magistratical authority?

135. What objection does Shield's consider and answer regarding this point? How does he answer it?

A. _____

B. _____

136. What two things owned in the testimony during Shield's time seem to be neither confirmed by nor consistent with the testimony of the period under consideration?

A. _____

B. _____

137. What five differences does our author enumerate to justify disowning the present tyrant's authority?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

E. _____