

1 John 2:24 – 27 “As I go into this new year, am I assured of God’s eternal life?”

I say I am a Christian—How will I make it to the end?

Take-home Idea: What does God provide so that we can persevere in the faith until heaven?

- I. We must let the Gospel _____ in us so that we will reside in God (24 – 25)
 - A. “Remaining in” the Gospel means _____ in the faith (24)

 - B. Remaining in the Word and abiding in (or continuing our residence in) the Father and the Son has a promised outcome (25)

- II. We must have the _____ of God residing in us, if we are to remain to the end (26 – 27)
 - A. Anti-God people (antichrists) will always try to come in and deceive us (26)

 - B. But, the Holy Spirit’s presence within us empowers and _____ us to remain true to the faith—to persevere all the way to heaven (27)

Our best defenses against lies and deception in the spiritual world, is the life-changing power of God’s truth, and the Holy Spirit who makes us understand it and accept it. We must be in the Word, and we must accept and obey it for the truth that it is!
