

Ruth - A Loving Redeemer

Genesis - God begins the promise to bless those who believe and follow Him.

Exodus – God liberates a people to live with Him.

Leviticus – God demands a perfect sacrifice by a perfect priest for an imperfect people to enter His holy presence.

Numbers – God remains faithful to His promises in spite of our weaknesses because of Christ.

Deuteronomy - God promises a new heart to obey His commands and receive His ultimate blessing.

Joshua – God provides victory to those who step out in faith and act on His promises.

Judges – God punishes and patiently leads His people to obedience.

Ruth - God provides loving redemption.

I. Needing A Redeemer (Chapter 1)

A. Redemption is needed because of a complex problem (vv. 1-16).

1.) The Bitter Circumstances (vv. 1-5).

2.) The Bad Counsel (vv. 6-14).

B. Redemption is needed because of a commitment to love (vv. 16-22).

1.) Ruth responds in faithfulness (16-18).

2.) Naomi Responding in Bitterness (vv. 19-22).

II. Finding a Redeemer (chapter 2)

A. A Happy Happening (1-13)

B. A Reaper Rewarded (8-13).

C. A Relieved Relative (vv. 18-23)

III. Securing a Redeemer (3-4)

- A. Naomi's Plot (3:1-5)
- B. Ruth's Obedience (3:6-18)
- C. Boaz' Redemption (4:1-12)