

Characteristics of an Overcomer

1 John 5:1-5

In chapter two, John presented three tests of genuine salvation: obedience (3-6), love (7-11), and belief (18-27). In chapter three, John addressed two of those tests: obedience (2:28-3:10) and love (11-18). In chapter four, John discussed two of those tests: belief (1-6) and love (7-12), combining them in the end (13-21). In chapter five, John threaded all three tests together as a tightly woven fabric that demonstrates their essential unity and describes the overcomer.

I. _____ in Jesus Christ (1a, 4-5)

Our present, continuing activity of believing is the result, and therefore the evidence, of our past experience of new birth by which we became and remain God's children. - John R. W. Stott

II. _____ for God and others (1b)

III. _____ to His commandments (2-3)

Characteristics of an Overcomer

1 John 5:1-5

In chapter two, John presented three tests of genuine salvation: obedience (3-6), love (7-11), and belief (18-27). In chapter three, John addressed two of those tests: obedience (2:28-3:10) and love (11-18). In chapter four, John discussed two of those tests: belief (1-6) and love (7-12), combining them in the end (13-21). In chapter five, John threaded all three tests together as a tightly woven fabric that demonstrates their essential unity and describes the overcomer.

I. _____ in Jesus Christ (1a, 4-5)

Our present, continuing activity of believing is the result, and therefore the evidence, of our past experience of new birth by which we became and remain God's children. - John R. W. Stott

II. _____ for God and others (1b)

III. _____ to His commandments (2-3)