

The GOSPEL of MARK

Our Call to Discipleship

The Anger of our King

Mark 3:1-6

PASTOR'S PRAYER

Almighty Father, you are Good, very good. LORD, you are Righteous, perfect in all your judgments. Father you are wise, all your ways are worthy of praise. Glory to God in the highest and earth peace among those with who He is pleased! Thank you, LORD, for sending your Son. Thank you for turning your wrath and anger away from us and placing all of our earned punishment and guilt upon the person of Jesus Christ. Grant us grace, Father. Remind us again of your longsuffering, your mercy, your enduring patience you have for each of us here this morning. Our very presence here in this gathering, worshiping you is a declaration of your constant mercy, grace and compassion toward us. O that we might repent and believe in Jesus Christ our righteous Savior this morning. Trust in Him. Cling to Him. Rely on Him. Hope in Him. Rest in Him. Come now by your Spirit and do this for us this morning, Father, as we hear & receive these precious benefits of Christ through your preached Word this morning. It is in His name we ask these things. Amen & Amen.

OUTLINE

1. Pharisees Watched to Accuse (vv. 1-2)
2. Jesus Observed with Anger (vv. 3-5)
3. Authorities Planned to Destroy (v. 6)

Central Textual Truth

Jesus affirms His authority over the Sabbath.

Central Sermon Aim

I want SGBC to rest in Christ the LORD of the Sabbath.