Benediction

 Please stand if able

1. Why was it so remarkable that Christ appeared to Moses—a man who had spent 40 years in the desert?

- 2*. Why did Christ command Moses to remove the shoes from his feet?

3. Why did God reveal Himself as the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob?

4. Why is it so amazing that God links His Name to the names of sinners?

- 5*. How do the words, “...and I am come down” affirm that it was Christ who appeared to Moses?

6. How do we know with certainty that the words “I will be with thee” (v. 12) are also a reference to Christ?

7. Why are the words I AM THAT I AM such a remarkable revelation of who God is?

8. How can you prove from Scripture that Christ is the I AM THAT I AM?

Question for Self-Reflection

Are you comforted by the fact that Christ is the I AM THAT I AM?

2. They confessed the LORD

3. They obeyed the LORD

Prayer

Psalter 308:1-3

Doxology: "May the grace..." **

Benediction

 Please stand if able

1. Why was it so amazing that the fire first consumed the sacrifice and then the rest of the altar?

 - 2*. Why was the sacrifice consumed at the time of the evening sacrifice in the temple in Jerusalem?

 3. Why is falling on our faces a remarkable expression of worship?

 4. Why does a proper understanding of Christ on the cross always result in worship?

 5. Why did the people emphasize the name LORD in their confession?

 6. What can we learn from the fact that the people said twice "the LORD, He is the God"?

 - 7*. Why did Elijah not want any of the priests of Baal to escape?

 8. Why will the true worship of God always result in a radical breaking with sin?
- Question for Self-reflection
What evidence is there in your life that your worship of God is real?
