NEW PSALM TUNE FOR DECEMBER 2019

Review

REFORMED READERS CLASS

The Session determined to resume our Reformed Readers Class, which will be held on the first Sabbath of each month in place of the Catechism Class. For the month of January, we will be reading Fair Sunshine by Jock Purves, a small book of biographical sketches of some 17th century Scottish Covenanters. If you would like to order one or more copies at $7/each (a significant discount), please inform Elder Reeder by December 22.

VACATION

Pastor McCurley will be taking time off from Dec. 23-Jan. 5., in order to devote his full attention to catching up on incomplete writing projects. He will be home and at our worship services. Mr. Joshua Cochran will be supplying the pulpit during that period. Please pray for the Lord's blessing on these labors.

QUOTE

"To abstain from sin, as it offendeth against the love of God showing mercy... is a spiritual obedience; so also to be troubled in soul for sin, committed by a justified person, against so many sweet bonds of free love and grace, is a sanctified and gracious sorrow and trouble of soul."

By: Samuel Rutherford (17th century Scottish Presbyterian)

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Westminster Larger Catechism and the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice is available on the book table and in the Church library.
