Grown-Ups In The Room Pt.26: “Salvation: Always Free, Always Priceless.”

I Text:

Old Covenant: Psalm 148

New Covenant: 1Peter 5:10-14

II Doctrine:

Christians who grasp the priceless gift they have been given, cannot help but praise God. The incredible gift of salvation is free, and priceless!

More important than the physical nation of Babylon, is the spiritual system it represents. The miraculous power God provides to Christians, is the ability to thrive in Babylon. Christians can extend God’s kingdom against all odds.

God expects all born again believers to show Christian love to one another. All of us who follow King Jesus should express our faith by blessing other believers with good will.

III Comparing Scripture With Scripture:

1) Christians who grasp the priceless gift they have been given, cannot help but praise God. The incredible gift of salvation is free, and priceless! (1Peter 5:10,11; Philippians 4:15-20; Revelation 1:4-6; Psalm 148)

2) More important than the physical nation of Babylon, is the spiritual system it represents. The miraculous power God provides to Christians, is the ability to thrive in Babylon. Christians can extend God’s kingdom against all odds. (1Peter 5:12,13; Revelation 18)

3) God expects all born again believers to show Christian love to one another. All of us who follow King Jesus should express our faith by blessing other believers with good will. (1Peter 5:14; John 13:1-17)
