

Series: John

Sermon: 10:11-21

1. Read Matthew 26:31. A. Who is the shepherd in this passage?

- B. How is this prophecy fulfilled?

- C. Where does Matthew cite this prophecy?

2. Read Matthew 2:3-6 and Matthew 26:31 again. Who is Jesus referred to as at His birth and at His death in these two prophecies recorded by Matthew? _____

3. Jesus fulfills many roles and responsibilities. So much so that God uses various figures of speech to describe Jesus. Read Revelation 7:17. A. What is unusual about the title and role described in this passage?

- B. How does Jesus fulfill both?

- C. Can you find a possibility of a third fulfillment in this passage that is mentioned in John? (Hint John 7)

4. Warning: The below questions are more difficult.

Many professing Christians argue that Limited/Particular/Specific Atonement is wrong because some scriptures' use of "whosoever" and "world" must mean that He died for everyone. See John 3:16, 4:42). How is John 10:15-16 helpful in interpreting those passages?

How could John 17:6-26 also be of help in gaining a better understanding of this?

5. According to Acts 20:28 what, or who, did Jesus obtain? _____ How did He obtain them?

_____ Was His blood also spent on those that would never be a part of His flock/church? _____ If His blood were spent upon those who were not of His flock, what would this also mean according to this passage?
