

COURSE TITLE	Preaching From the Heidelberg Catechism 514 Homiletics IV
INSTRUCTOR	Dr. Joel Beeke jrbeeke@aol.com
DEPARTMENT	Practical Theology
MEETING TIMES	Tuesday 1-2:35pm Thursday 1-2:35pm

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course teaches thematic preaching via the Heidelberg Catechism. Three sermons based on Lord's Days in the catechism are written out in full, one of which is delivered to staff and students for critiquing.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. The student will acquire a basic understanding of the history and theology of the Heidelberg Catechism.
2. The student will be able to develop thematic topical sermons from the Heidelberg Catechism.
3. The student will develop an understanding of a variety of approaches to the preaching of most Lord's Days of the Heidelberg Catechism.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. Collateral Reading (20% of grade)

The texts by Ursinus and Van't Spijker should be read in full by the last day of class. Read Lord's Days 1-7 of the Beeke text and skim the rest of the two volumes. Skim Kersten and Olevianus as well as we progress through the Lord's Days in class. The student will provide a written note to the instructor on the last day of class that records the amount of reading completed, and will be graded accordingly.

B. Preparation of Written Sermons (60%; 20% per sermon)

Three sermons (approx. 10 pages) based on Lord's Days in the catechism (one from each section: misery, deliverance, and gratitude) must be written out in full, one of which should be delivered to staff and students for critiquing in Practice Preaching. The first sermon is due October 3; the second, October 31; the third, November 28.

C. Final Exam (20% of grade)

An essay exam will be given on December 9, 1:00–2:35 p.m., covering the readings (except for the skimmed portions) and the class lectures.
